

Energy 1

Smart Energy. Clean Energy.™

LEAD HYDRONIC TECHNICIAN Job Description

Energy 1 is hiring for a FT Lead Hydronic Technician, for our Bozeman, Montana team. The Lead's key accountability is to manage the field techs/laborers on a given project, and report regularly to the Project Manager. Key responsibilities include managing a project on a day to day basis, ensuring projects stay on schedule, and for the layout and rough-in on the job.

3 years of radiant install experience (or related) and must have tools of the trade. Must be organized and dependable.

Specific Job Duties

- Responsible for keeping projects on schedule
- Assist in managing project on day-to-day basis and coordinating daily schedules
- Manage field techs/laborers
- Communicate schedule/needs/materials w/ PM
- On-the-job training
- Follow set of plans
- Keep job site clean and organized
- Layout and rough-in on the job
- Aware of daily safety needs/requirements
- Responsible for maintenance/cleanliness of vehicles/trailers

Reporting

- Lead reports to Project Manager

Energy 1 offers 4 x 10-hr shifts and competitive pay. We work hard/play hard and are family friendly with excellent benefits. Get paid to get certified - Energy 1 exclusively offers the only Certified Hydronic Technician Apprenticeship in the state of Montana, and participation in this program is paid for by the company.

To apply, send your resume/qualifications to hr@energy-1.net